Continuation of 11. does NOT place the application in condition for allowance because: Applicant's arguments are not persuasive. Miskinyar: the cannula is capable of being removed and thus is "removable", such as by cutting. Safabash: there is quite clearly a cover over the needle in Fig 37-38, 40A and 40b while the insertion set is connected to the injector device. The embodiment has not been addressed by the applicant.
